Good Morning Star!

This was recently brought to my attention earlier today, the BLM mural in front of the First Baptist Church of Venice was vandalized with red paint.

I've asked the community to file a 311 request and they independently want to file a police report.

Is your office able to help resolve this issue and fix the mural?

Thank you so much for your help!!

Good Evening:

Do we have any lapd reports on this vandalism? Any cameras in the area that can provide leads to suspects?

Were there any calls made to 911 about the vandalism?

Thank you,

This was recently brought to my attention earlier today, the BLM mural in front of the First Baptist Church of Venice was vandalized with red paint.

I've asked the community to file a 311 request and they independently want to file a police report.

Is your office able to help resolve this issue and fix the mural?

Thank you so much for your help!!

Good Morning Star!

This was recently brought to my attention earlier today, the BLM mural in front of the First Baptist Church of Venice was vandalized with red paint.

I've asked the community to file a 311 request and they independently want to file a police report.

Is your office able to help resolve this issue and fix the mural?

Thank you so much for your help!!

CD11 colleagues,

I'm looping in StreetsLA staff to provide you with an update on the planned repair of the BLM street design at 688 Westminster Ave in Venice.

StreetsLA will do everything possible to adhere to the below plan and to resolve this issue as quickly as possible.

Tuesday 4/11, 7:30 AM - power-washing of red paint around the lettering (OCB contractor/StreetsLA)

Wednesday 4/12 - re-doing of the lettering itself (Creative Paving Solutions/StreetsLA)

Michael Cox and James Hawkins are copied here and are the leads from StreetsLA with regards to this project.

I'm also CCing Felicia Filer (DCA) to keep her in the loop.

Please let us know if you have any questions. Thank you!

Best,
Dan

Dear Traci Park staff:

I've been a vocal supporter of Traci Park since the start of her campaign, but I'm concerned about something.

Is Councilmember Park going to make a statement about the vandalism of the Black Lives Matter mural in the street in front of the First Baptist Church in Venice? I reported the vandalism to Ashley Lozada on the day it occurred and received a pat response. I've seen the crew fixing the mural, but it would mean a lot to the community if Traci Park made a statement condemning the vandalism of the Black Lives Matter mural.

This is not good. She needs to say something. Please don't make me regret all of the grief I took on social media for supporting Traci Park's campaign.

I emailed Ashley Lozada about a statement but have received no response. I expect a response to this email.

Thank you,

Dear Ashley:

That statement was both lame and extremely ineffectual. I hope in the future the Councilperson and her staff can do better.

Something bad was done, and you need to acknowledge that in a more substantial way. If not, then people might start to believe that the accusations of Ms. Park being racist are at least partially true.

I'll guess we'll just look at this as a test, one that you failed very badly. And right out of the gate too.

There's still time to do the right thing, but from the smug pat responses I've received from you so far, I suppose that will not happen.

I feel the Venice community will expect more from Traci Park in the future, so that we don't regret electing her.

That statement was both lame and extremely ineffectual. I hope in the future the Councilperson and her staff can do better.

Something bad was done, and you need to acknowledge that in a more substantial way. If not, then people might start to believe that the accusations of Ms. Park being racist are at least partially true.

I'll guess we'll just look at this as a test, one that you failed very badly. And right out of the gate too.

There's still time to do the right thing, but from the smug pat responses I've received from you so far, I suppose that will not happen.

I feel the Venice community will expect more from Traci Park in the future, so that we don't regret electing her.

Hi Ashley:

Thanks for getting back to me. I saw them restoring the mural yesterday and that is great.

Is Traci going to make a statement condemning the destruction of the BLM mural? That would mean a lot to the Venice community.

Please let me know. Thanks!

Hello Steve,

Thank you for your email. We are actually already working on this issue with our StreetsLA team to both power wash the red paint off and redo the lettering that was harmed. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you.

Hi Ashley:

My name is Steve Bevilacqua and I am constituent in CD11. The BLM street mural in front of the First Baptist Church on Westminster at 7th in Venice has been defaced with red paint and tire treads.

I think it'd be great if your office could help restore the mural.

Thank you,

Dear Ashley:

That statement was both lame and extremely ineffectual. I hope in the future the Councilperson and her staff can do better.

Something bad was done, and you need to acknowledge that in a more substantial way. If not, then people might start to believe that the accusations of Ms. Park being racist are at least partially true.

I'll guess we'll just look at this as a test, one that you failed very badly. And right out of the gate too.

There's still time to do the right thing, but from the smug pat responses I've received from you so far, I suppose that will not happen.

I feel the Venice community will expect more from Traci Park in the future, so that we don't regret electing her.

Hello Steve,

The Councilwoman already made a statement about the destruction of the mural on our social media.
